CLASS OF 1903, PRINCETON UNIVERSITY, FIVE YEAR RECORD (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Class of 1903, Princeton University, Five Year Record This Quinquennial Record book is offered to the Class with many apologies on account of its incompleteness. The first notices were sent out last September with expectation that I would have enough material in the course of at least three months, but I found at the end of that time that about half the material was in my hands, making the many extra notices necessary. It was my intention to have each fellow write a letter for the book, but all my repeated coaxings, entreaties, etc., were alas in vain. To those fellows who did write letters for the book I wish to extend my congratulations as their efforts will help to make the record book infinitely more interesting than a mere compilation of names and addresses. Since graduation, the fellows in the Class have scattered to the four parts of the globe; some have gone out to foreign fields as missionaries; others as teachers, and still others as travellers. Among the professions, the study of law seemed to have had the greatest attraction, and as a result there are at present fifty of our Class who are young barristers practising throughout the United States, - the career of the lawyers is more particularly described in Al Smith s article on the Law. Those who studied medicine, though fewer in number than those who studied law, now hold responsible positions in the various hospitals of our cities, as you will learn by reading Old Doctor Mixsell s article on Medicine. The Class is also well represented in the clergy, there being nine men who are now ministers...
