By Dean J Baker

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The most unique set of poems I have ever read. Having read Dark Earth by Dean J Baker my first reaction is WOW. This was written for me. His poetry speaks to me deep down in my soul. What I admire is Dean s pulling out all the stops, no sublime romanticist here; no, instead he s taken notes from the underbelly of those masters of the macabre and grotesque. Dean is a true comic poet as well, full of those sly interventions and evasions, slights of self, incriminations and elisions. He s the kind of poet that gets under your skin and stays there like a song in some dark noir alley that sings to you of love and death suckled on good old home grown truth. Poems of the good and bad earth - nature raw in the physical and the spiritual, the emotional and the intellectual. om some reviews: /reviews/ Exempt of the narcissistic emptiness built into other forms of contemporary culture, Dean J. Baker s works show a highly disciplined,...
