Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Hints on Driving But Fortune favoured me; and I drove His Majesty s Mail for nearly five years without an accident. I was then promoted to the Quicksilver, Devonport Mail, the fastest at that time out of London. It must be admitted that I undertook this task under difficult circumstances - involving as it did, sixty miles a night - since many had tried it ineffectually, or at all events were unable to accomplish the duty satisfactorily. It is gratifying to me to reflect, that I drove this coach more than seven years without a single mishap. Getting at length rather tired of such incessant and monotonous nightly work, I applied for a change to my employer, the well-known and much-rcspctcd Mr. Chaplin, who at that time had seventeen hundred horses employed in coaching. His reply was characteristic. I cannot find you all day coaches, said he; besides, who am I to get to drive your Mail? I must say, I thought this rather severe at the time, but, good and kind-hearted man as he...
