Mesmeric surgery--Men of all professions come forward in their own names in support of the Author's statements--An amputation of a thigh reported by F. W. Simms, Esq., civil engineer to the East India Company--Five mesmeric operations described by the Rev. Mr. la Croix--An amputation of a thigh reported by Major Corfield and brother officers--Mesmeric operations reported by the Rev. Mr. Hill-- Mesmerism as a soother of pain, translated from the Count de Goertz's Indian Letters-- List of mesmeric operations performed by the Author--Concluding remarks on mesmeric surgery--The effects of cold on persons in the mesmeric trance--Experiments on this point-- Examples of singular physical and mental phenomena sometimes seen in mesmeric operations -- The proposal of a suspected impostor to the Doctor Sahibs. Hooghly, where my first experiments were made, being an obscure country station, I was compelled to appear frequently before the public in the invidious character of my own chronicler, or permit the important facts that fell daily under my observation to die in obscurity. I was soon saved this disagreeable task, however, by the visitors of my hospitals coming forward voluntarily in their own names to vouch for the reality of what had been reported by me. They were gentlemen of all professions, and generally strangers to me; and the reader will be able to judge from their reports how far presumed enthusiasm or partizanship had obscured my senses and judgment. The following are only a few...
