HOW TO RAISE RESILIENT BOUNCE-BACK KIDS

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Resilience is a learned skill! It can be taught and learned, just as piano playing or riding a bike is a teachable lifeskill. As parents and other caring adults we can assist young people to overcome disappointment and to become problem solvers in life. We have the opportunity to help them shift negative experiences into life lessons. Dr. Dennis Charney, Dean, ICAHN School of medicine who has studied those who have or are training themselves to be bounce back people has said Resilience is essentially a set of skills--as opposed to a disposition or personality type--that makes it possible for people not only to get through hard times but to thrive during and after them. Just as rubber rebounds after being squeezed or squished, so do resilient people. This book on Raise A Resilient, Bounce Back Kid is written by parent educator and family relations coach Judy Helm Wright. She is also the author of the companion book for adults Out of Balance? Be A Bounce Back Person Judy s books are research based but filled with tips and techniques that assist caring adults to gain mastery over difficult situations. No wonder she has the honorary title of Auntie Artichoke which means a wise woman who loves unconditionally. Be sure to look under her name in Amazon and book distribution portals for the other books. That includes The Left Out Child- The Importance of Friendship and How To Help Kids Like Themselves and Building Self Confidence and Self Esteem You will find even more information about this skill and how to incorporate it into your daily life at // There is meaning in whatever stressful or adverse situation...
