Excerpt: . . . 15 producing the evidence necessary to establish the cause and extent of the disability, usually medical evidence. VA contends that the implementation of VCAA notice require-ments has significantly contributed to the time it takes to process disability claims. Based on VAs interpretation of notice require-ments under VCAA, the processing timeline is extended by 90 days minimum (60 days after receipt of claims and an additional 30 if no response). Nonetheless, as recommended by the VDBC, the Committee supports efforts to further streamline the VCAA notice by possible implementation of an informed consent form when the claim has been fully developed and the veteran is satisfied with the evidence submitted before the 60 - 90 day window. This would likely allow well-developed claims to be adjudicated upon receipt, decreas-ing processing timeframes. Furthermore, the Committee finds that it is essential that VA develop a detailed checklist to include with its VCAA letters that it sends to veterans. The Committee is absolutely confounded by VAs resistance...
