Excerpt: . CHAPTER XXXIX LETTERS TO A GRANDCHILD Jubilee College, Sept. 8, 42. My Dear Laura: When you wrote your good letter of the 22d of August, I was in the northern part of my diocese with your uncle Dudley, who is now my faithful fellowlaborer in the Christian ministry. We were preaching every day, and so tired at night with the various duties of our office as to drop from our chairs before our beds could be made. You were at home playing with the calves and kittens, with no thought of care to disturb your repose by night. How different are the lots to which we seem to be called! I never had a resting day in my life since I was a child. Rachael and I used to play on the large quartz rock, near father s and Ben Hall s. It...
