Capstick: Memorial Addresses Delivered in the House of Representatives of the United States The House met at 11 o clock a. m. The Chaplain, Rev. Henry N. Couden, D. D., offered the following prayer: Our Father in heaven, we find ourselves submerged in almost impenetrable darkness, which covers the earth as the waters cover the sea; and we most fervently pray that it may presage the dawning of a new day, which shall flood the earth with light, warmth, and beauty; bring to men a clearer vision of the larger life, correct mistakes, right all wrongs, banish war, and establish a lasting peace; fructify and replenish the earth with all good; and unite all men and nations in the bonds of brotherly love: For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the Lord, so shall your seed and your name remain. Our Father, our hearts are touched by the death of a Member of this House who has been taken from the confines...
